EVIDENCE MAY SHOW RAILROADS ASSASSIN OF SLOAN

Brother of Man Whose Life Was Threatened to Go Before Jury at Fairfield, Ill.

NO CLEW TO GUILTY PERSON.

Prosecuting Attorney Fears Investigation Will Reveal Nothing-Denounces Crime as Cowardly.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

Fairfield, Ill., Oct. 27—The citizens of this piace are anxiously awaiting the coming of to-morrow night, when the final session of the Coroner's jury, which is inquiring into the assassination of Albert Sloan on Monday, will be held.

It is expected that important testimony will be produced and the mystery of the assassin's identity partly or totally cleared.

Sheriff L. H. Weaver asserted to-night that he will serve a subrooma on James Fetters, a farmer living three miles from this city, and his wife.

It is believed that something will idevelop from the testimony of Fetters.

THREATS WERE PASSED.

THREATS WERE PASSED.

Three weeks ago Sherman Fetters, a brother of the witness to be examined to-morrow night, had trouble with Stoan, it being asserted that Sloan, with a butcher-knife in his hand, made threats against Fetters, who is a delivery man.

The sympathies of the populace are at slight variance, all decloring the methods used to bring about the death of Sloan, who had long been regarded as a dangerous man.

The officers of the county are making the investigation on the theory that the investigation on the theory that the murderer had been threatened by Sloan, and that the killing was done through fear of the man.

LOADING GUN WHEN KILLED. THREATS WERE PASSED.

LOADING GUN WHEN KILLED.

Ten minutes before Sloan was fatally shot he entered a store several blocks from his home and bought shot, powder and caps for his gun, which he was preparing to load when the shot was fired through the window.

Prosecuting Attorney B. F. Thomas stated this afternoon that the inquiry will probably be discontinued after to-morrow, and expressed the opinion that sufficient evidence to reveal the guilty person will express.

ovidence to reveal the guilty person will not be secured.

"The fact that Sloan was regarded as a bad man," said the Prosecutor, "will not prevent a pressing prosecution of the case if the perpetrator can be discovered. It was a cowardly deed."

Associates of Retiring General Manager of the Terminal Extend Tribute in Parting-Goes to Baltimore.

ALEXANDER ROBERTSON, was honored by a banquet prior to his departure for Baltimore.

Alexander Robertson, retiring general manager of the Terminal Ratiroad Association, was the guest of the Terminal Associates at a banquet in the Terminal Hotel last night. The banquet was a friendly farewell to Mr. Robertson, as he will depart next week to become general manager of the Western Maryland System. em.
Fifty-five officials of the Terminal and frity-investigations of the ferminal and other railroads in St. Louis, and some from outside points, were at the tables, besides the dinner there were speeches, music and presentation of a watch and chain to Mr. Robertson, and a toilet set to Mrs. Robertson. chain to Mr. Robertson, and a tonet set to Mrs. Robertson.

The watch was intended as a token of estem from Mr. Robertson's former associates and subordinates in the Terminal Association. Inscribed on the timepiece were the words: "Aigander Robertson, from his St. Louis Terminal Associates, November 1, 1961."

The toilet set was given to Mrs. Robertinon at the Union Station, but she was not at the banquet.

and at the Union Station, but she was not at the banquet.

W. A. Garrett, former superintendent of the Terminal Rathroad here, now general manager of the Queen and Crescent road, came from Cincinnati especially to attend the banquet. He spoke of his relations with Mr. Robertson, and declared that the latter's employes and associates ought to hesitate between the emotions of pleasure at his promotion and sorrow at his departure.

at his promotion and sorrow at his departure.

In the course of the banquet a singer, who had been kept in the background, suddenly raised his voice and sang a parody on "Back Back to Baltimore," alded by a chorus of railroad men, under the leadership of Barney Frauenthal.

The significance of the song was noted by all who knew that Mr. Robertson-originally come from Baltimore, and is to return there to become general manager of the Western Maryland.

In addition to Mr. Garrett's address, there were speeches by President W. S. McChesney Jr., toastmaster; I. L. Burlingame, the Termital's new general superintendent; J. J. Coakley, the new superintendent; Barney Frauenthal and others.

Miss Frances Miller, Who Took Physician's Buggy to Meet Sweetheart, Is Identified by Headgear-Not Worried.

FRANCES MILLER.

An unusually large red hat was the means by which the police identified Miss Frances Miller. If years old, who failed to ask permission to use the horse and buggy of Doctor Andrew Harscher, of No. 3624 South Broadway, yesterday.

The hat was noticed by several of the bystaniers, who saw Miss Miller enter the conveyace and drive away.

When' Patrolmen Foerstel and Steinberg arrived at No. 1805 South Broadway, from in front of which the vehicle was taken, the hat was described. An hour later while the patrolmen were walking in the 6700 block on South Broadway they caught sight of a red hat in a buggy. Investigating they learned that the wearer of the hat was Miss Miller. She was arrested and taken to the Second District Police Station, where she spent the night. When arrested Mas Miller did not seem at all disturbed, and confessed to having taken the buggy.

She said that she took it because she had an engagement with her sweetheart, and that she did not have car fare to go to their trysting place. She said that she did not think she was committing a crime in taking the equipage, and that she intended to return it.

Mas Miller seemed to consider it all a great lark. She gave her address as No. SKI Manchester avenue. She will appear in court this morning.

The huggy and horse were returned to Doctor Harscher. Oregon. Mo. Oct. II—The year-old son of Alexander Harrison. Ilving about nine miles north of this place, near Mound City, was sitting on his grandmother's lap today, when one of his playmates, a boy about 19 years old, came in carrying a shotgun, which he pointed at the beby, saving it was not loaded.

'It was accidentally discharged, instantly killing the baby by blewing off its head. The grandmother was not injured.
